IN THE HANDS OF EAGAN.

Claimed That the Solution of the Miles Eagan Imbroglio

Is in Hands of Latter.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 14

—The key to the solution of the difficulty between General Eagan and General Miles was today in the hands of the former.

The war commission having called upon him to modify his statement, nothing can be done until he either has revised his first declaration or has notified the committee of his refusal to do so. It is confidently expected by the best informed officials that the commissary general will modify his statement to meet the criticisms of the commissions. He himself will make no statement touching his purposes, limiting his answer to the statement that he had, so far taken no action. Unofficially word has reached the war investigating commission that General Eagan is carefully expunging the vituperation and objectionable portions, and will shortly send it back to the commission. When received it will be carefully scrutinized by the commission, and if it be found that all the objectionable language is eliminated will be voted upon in executive session and probably accepted.

Opinions still vary as to whether the withdrawal of the offensive statements will end the incident. Weight of opinion seems to be that the president and Secretary Alger, in whose hands the cabinet rested the whole matter after its consideration yesterday, have not made up their minds as to what course they shall pursue.

General Miles came to his office, but had nothing to contribute to the controversy. His position is, as already stated, that the matter is one for the department to treat; that it is not incumbent upon him to make any movement at this stage.

MEXICO HONORS

CLAYTON.

City of Mexico, January 14

—Orders have been given to the police of this city to allow free passage at all times to the carriage of United States Ambassador Clayton, and police inspectors requiring the declaration of Ambassador Clayton are instructed to request an audience from him and accept his statement without affirmation. He is to be treated the same as the President of the Republic in all public places, being the direct representative of the President of the United States.

AGUINALDO'S BACKER.

Facts From State Department

Warranting the Assertion

That It Is Germany.

Washington D. C. Jan. 14—

Germany is back of Aguinaldo

The senate committee on foreign affairs has facts from the state department warranting this assertion.

Spain is urging the United States for the release of the Spanish prisoners held by the Filipinos.

THE SIXTH UN-

DER ORDERS.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 14.

—The Sixth regiment of infantry, regulars, at San Antonio, has been ordered to be in readiness for prompt transportation in case it is found the six regiments already under orders to go to Manila are not sufficient for the proper administration of military affairs in the island.

There are several other regiments held in readiness for possible service in the Philippines, but so far the Sixth is the only one ordered to hold itself in readiness for such a movement on short notice.

The six regiments now preparing for the long journey to Manila are the Third, Fourth, Twelfth, Seventeenth, Twentieth, and Twenty-second, aggregating about 7500 troops.

MILES EAGAN SCANDAL.

Gen. Eagan Using the Blue Pencil On His Testimony.

Washington D. C. Jan. 14.

The Miles-Eagan scandal is still the talk of the town. Gen Eagan it is understood, is now trying to blue pencil his vituperative attack on Gen. Miles and submit it once more to the war investigating committee in its expurgated condition.

He is finding it a hard job.

He is his own censor and is placed in
